

I would hate to see a Christian radio station taken off of the air. The less choices we have; the less informed we become. This is a country of choices and people should have as many as possible. Thank you.